Invisible City - Julia Dahl

Invisible City by Julia Dahl tugged at my curiosity about Hasidic Jews. They are indeed an invisible city, unless we read a book about their life by a former Hasidic we really don't know that much about their lives. The author is a journalist who writes about crime and if the main character could have a wish, I believe that she would like the ...

Invisible City: A Novel (Rebekah Roberts Novels): Julia ...

Dahl, a journalist herself, has painted the world of reporting and newsrooms with a welcome realism often absent from books that attempt to capture this rapidly changing profession. She is remarkable in her ability to portray the life of a tabloid journalist in today's New York City, and then she adds another layer by setting the rush and ...

Les's Book Critiques: Invisible City by Julia Dahl

Journalist Julia Dahl's riveting debut novel explores one woman's search for the truth about a murder, and her own heritage. Julia Dahl has real crime-reporting cred, as witnessed by her work for cbsnews.com and the New York Post. But the down-and-dirty witness here is her no-nonsense, crime-writing style in Invisible City: "The glass door rings open and two Jewish men walk inside, carrying the ...
