Like many other readers, I long for books that have unique settings. While small town USA in 1918 is not an exotic location, it is a most under-utilized one. When I saw that Alexis Harrington's Home by Morning was written around World War I and the influenza epidemic of 1918, I knew I had to read it. After graduating from Women's Medical College in Philadelphia, Jessica Layton spent years ...

Home By Morning by Alexis Harrington - All About Romance

To escape the heartache of seeing Cole again, Jessica vows to keep her visit home as brief as possible. But the influenza epidemic that's been ravaging the world hits Powell Springs hard. With no other doctor available, Jessica stays to treat the victims - and tries to ignore the emotions that surge each time Cole crosses her path.
