I, Omega (2011) About book: 4.5 stars!A super hot hot hot love story!-0.5 star because the ending is slightly too rush.I am an epilogue person so I really prefer a new-ending-scene-ending not a last-scene-ending. Not sure if anyone understands what I mean. Let's say the story would earn 0.5 star back by ending with Gabriel calls and explains to his dad about him and Cal, his dad is relieved ...

review 1: Ok I liked this, was not really sure about it but the good reviews made me give it a chance. I am not sure what to say, I enjoyed it well enough, wanted to see what would happen next. The premise was somewhat interesting to me not being a reader of the shifter, werewolf stuff really not familiar with the world.

I, Omega

I liked this one. I, Omega was an interesting read and definitely hot and kinky. I have to admit that it felt like something was missing though. Something that would have made the characters (excluding Gabriel) feel more real. Maybe it was that Gabriel didn't really know the shifters and even by the end of the book he doesn't seem to either.
