Alice I Think Macleod 1

Alice, I Think is a quirky story about a quirky fifteen-year-old girl called Alice MacLeod, who records her day in her journal in her original style. It's hard to describe Alice and do her justice, but let me try. Starting school in grade 1 dressed as a hobbit pretty much formed her life: after being bullied and teased and then hit in the head with a rock, she's home schooled by her ex-hippie ...

Alice, I Think by Susan Juby · OverDrive (Rakuten ...

Bad cover. My library has it shelved as juvenile - which, come on, that's what it looks like. But the frequent references to alcohol and drug use, the dysfunction masquerading as humor, the brawling in the streets (or, in one case, by the mom in a parking lot) that the cops can't stop being treated as if almost normal, just drove me nuts.
