I love Cara Dee's writing style. I discovered her with Noah. I adored Home and then I just dived in When Forever Ended because I couldn't get enough. Unfortunately I enjoyed Aftermath the least. It reminded me a little about When Forever Ended, because of the straight married man who had a child to sooth after their parents' divorce.

Cara Dee builds two completely different men, gives each his own language, and it works. Consistently. I also like the style of writing -- bouncing back and forth between each man's thoughts and flashbacks to fill in the gaps. Her works it quick and easy, and I never got lost in the telling. Very good work.

Here we go again - Cara Dee at her finest. Kidnapping, horror, violence, 'Aftermath' is aptly named. The story between Cam and Austin is loaded with all things evil and the triumph over it. She weaves these horrible topics into stories of resurrection and resurgence of life, love and possibility. Cant wait to read Outcome.
