Autumn Doughton is a lyrical writer who tells great stories from the heart. Curling up with Aimee and Cole, following along as their relationship unfolded was an excellent escape and a reminder to savor the little moments: like a heart beat, like waves washing to shore and each other. In this moment is an offering.

I read and like Autumn Doughton's On the Edge of Glass, but I loved In This Moment. It was a real story that took its time to reveal all the gritty details of death, friendship, love and devotion. Doughton writes "bare bones" love scenes in that she builds the heat and desire in the reader, then tells you when it's over.
