Sure, they interest me a lot. Based on your beating of the fasting drum lately, I tried my first fast last week and loved it. Easier than expected, and the surprise benefit is that it's helped to reset my appetite — I used to gorge, and feel hungry if I didn't, but that may have been more a conditioned response than a true hunger, b/c it was making me a little soft and I really didn't ...

It occurred to me today that accommodation is a two-way street with cats, probably more often than we credit them for. I was home sick today, and re-reading Naomi Novik's In His Majesty's Service at the dining room table, when Callisto jumped up to say hi and get some pets. I scritched her into a happy cat puddle in no time, and spent several blissful minutes reading and giving her ...
