Victor Carl, the protagonist of "Hostile Witness," is one of the most enjoyable characters to appear in suspense fiction in quite some time. Far from being the embodiment of the idealized American lawyer, Carl is full of flaws and frailties that make him all the more enjoyable to follow in this fast-paced, suspense-laden thriller that has humor and heart.

The Victor Carl I love!! What did you love best about Hostile Witness? I read this ten years ago in print and recently on audio. The audio version was abridged. I will not say the abridgment gutted the story because I enjoyed it, but I could surely sense some gaps. This is, so far, Lashner's best and Audible should have the unabridged version ...
