A Girl's Guide to Vampires is told from Joy's first-person viewpoint, which was entertaining until she mutated into a TSTL meddler. And, of course, the drawback with first person is a lack of insight into other characters. Since Raphael was very secretive, it was harder to get to know him through Joy's perspective. ...

A Girl's Guide to Vampires - All About Romance

Would you recommend A Girl's Guide to Vampires to your friends? Why or why not? No. The story is called A Girl's Guide to Vampires, but there is very little girl/vampire interaction. The only redeeming quality about this story was the sex. Would you listen to another book narrated by Karen White? As it turned out, I did.
