How To Answer Law Exam

For most first-year students, taking initial law school examinations is scary. Unlike most undergraduate classes, law school grades are usually based entirely off of the final examination, which is graded on a curve against the responses of other students. However, by preparing adequately, outlining your answer and ...

Why This is a Bad Idea. You don't get very many points for drawing the right conclusions. The point of a law school exam isn't to get the "right" answer. At best, that gets you maybe 10% of the points. Two students can both get As, and end up with different conclusions on close questions (trust me — happened with two TAs I know).

an essay exam means regurgitating information, doing an "information dump," as I heard one person describe it. It is crucial that you understand that this is not how law school exams work. Feeding back into a law-school exam answer all the information you've learned by repeating that information is completely ineffective. This is especially important for first-semester 1Ls to learn.
