I am not sure what the unhappy reviewers were expecting with this book. It isn't going to tell you how to start your own clean-up business, nor is it going to tell you how to run said clean-up business. And it isn't supposed to. What it does do, is follow the author on his journey of discovery and "job shadow"ing the technicians of Aftermath, Inc.

The crew from Aftermath Cleanup and Hauling showed up on time (actually a little early which was good). They made short shrift of the cleaning process and soon my garage was clear of all the junk and clutter. They even swept up the dirt and debris left behind. They were professional, friendly and very accommodating.
