If You Liked School, You'll Love Work . . . - Irvine Welsh ...

Irvine Welsh's novel from last summer was fairly disappointing, so I approached his new volume of short stories, If You Liked School, You'll Love Work, with an air of cautious trepidation. Sadly the magic of his earlier short story collections is equally missing here, and - a few phrases and images aside - this fails to captivate.

If You Liked Work, You'll Love School isn't necessarily proof that Sickboy's Unifying Theory has come home to roost in Welsh himself. It does illustrate the potential for a slide, however, and after the lackluster effort with Bedroom Secrets of the Master Chefs I was hoping Welsh would try a little harder.
