on her math test, she sees her road to certainty. But it won't answer just any question—like whether her parents may get divorced—as people have free will, and some answers are just plain terrifying, like whether her grandmother is going to die. Messner plunges Ava into recognizable preteen situations both at school and at home.

ALL THE ANSWERS by Kate Messner | Kirkus Reviews

"All the Answers" is just the book I needed. After reading so much realistic fiction lately, I was craving a bit of fantasy. This is a wonderful middle grade novel filled with laughs and magic. I loved how Kate Messner drew readers in with humor and relatable characters before presenting us with a moral dilemma.
