Unfortunately it's advertised as a standalone novel but to understand the plight of the characters, you have to have read James Howe's Bunnicula series, so you'll have to pay a boatload of cash to get the series. I did like Howliday Inn; it's quirky, off-beat humor was rather dark but still appropriate for children. The book is vividly written ...

Howliday Inn (Bunnicula, #2) by James Howe - Goodreads

Howe does a great job of coming up with new and interesting characters for this second installment of the Bunnicula series. I was a little disappointed that Bunnicula does not have a part in Howliday Inn, but Chester and Harold are interesting enough to make the read enjoyable.
