In Darkness by Nick Lake – review. Nick Lake's In Darkness is just the kind of book that might attract this brand of unfair criticism. It has a complex structure, deals with sometimes brutally unsympathetic characters, and tells the story, both modern and historical, of Haiti, a country that doesn't figure high on most school curricula.

In Darkness by Nick Lake - review | Books | The Guardian

Author Nick Lake provides an intertwined story based on two true events. The 2010 devastating earthquake in Haiti is dramatically fictionalized and the overthrowing of slavery hundreds of years earlier in Haiti is attempted to be told in as true a fashion as possible.
