A Hero's Return - Kindle edition by Xavier Edwards ...

This is a very heartfelt, emotional story. I'm used to the more lighthearted stories by Xavier Edwards so I was a bit surprised by this one. Even though it's a short story you really get a feel for some of the emotions and demons our men and women in the military face after some of the missions they undertake.

A Hero's Return was written for the West Point Middle School Band, located at the United States Military Academy, West Point, NY. The opening section conveys the celebratory atmosphere of when a hero comes home to friends and family. The middle section represents the quiet tribute we pay to the fond memories of heroes no longer in our midst.

Community Reviews. Heroes Return is a fun new addition to Moira J. Moore's Heroes series. The fifth book of the series about Dunleavy Mallorrough and Shintaro Karish, a bonded pair of the Source and Shield Service a.k.a. the Triple S, takes us back to Shintaro's childhood home. The book moves the series along nicely by suggesting that magic,...

Professor X Makes A Shocking Return To The Marvel Universe. According to Astonishing X-Men #6, Xavier has been imprisoned like this for 100s of years (presumably time works differently on the Astral Plane), but he's found an unexpected escape. Xavier and the Shadow King have been playing a game using several of the X-Men as pawns.

Most Helpful Customer Reviews. A chase ensues.... Hero's Return is the fifth book in the series if you count the digital novella, Cowboy's Reckoning, published earlier this year. That said, it absolutely works well as a standalone read, if that is your preference. The story primarily features two brilliantly written characters, Tucker and Kate.
