Adrian's Eagles (Life After War #4) An Eagle is the only line of defense between our camp of survivors and a hostile new world. Extreme force is necessary and will be used at my discretion, no matter the age or condition of the threat. True mercy in this new hell usually comes from death and hardly anything else.

GameVortex's review of Adrian's Eagles: Book 4 (Life After War). I am sad to say that Adrian's Eagles: Book 4 (Life After War) is my least favorite book of the series. While the 750+ page book is flanked by exciting events at both the beginning and end, the middle flounders with tales of Angela's transformation into an Eagle and, as such, Adrian's \
