Impossible 1 Nancy Werlin

In the novel, Impossible by Nancy Werlin, Lucy Scarborough is the main character, and as a reader I'm suppose to care for her plight and root her on in her journey and the challenges she faces. However, she is not likeable, and I found it hard to sympathize with her situation. I felt Lucy's character was shallow and not well developed.

Nancy Werlin knows how to spin her web well. The three (or four, depending on how you count them) impossible tasks that Lucy must complete before her daughter is born are very tricky to figure out. They say to never judge a book by its cover, however this book is just as captivating at the cover itself.
