Some people like to do all their writing offline. That doesn't work for me or my writing style—but if you can live without the internet for a while, might as well try. Then, once you've found your quiet place, don't do anything fun there. Don't go out. Don't make other plans. Just write! Okay, if you need a break—fine.

Book Review: If You Want to Write by Brenda Ueland

If you want to be a writer, you must do two things above all others: read a lot and write a lot. There's no way around these two things that I'm aware of, no shortcut. Stephen King "There really is no other way." If you want to be a writer you actually have to write. Write anything. Write something horrible or not. It doesn't matter. Just write. The same is true of reading. If ...
