"Voodoo Chile" is a song written by Jimi Hendrix and recorded in 1968 for the third Jimi Hendrix Experience album Electric Ladyland. It is based on the Muddy Waters blues song "Rollin' Stone", but with original lyrics and music. At fifteen minutes, it is Hendrix's longest studio recording and features additional musicians in what has been described as a studio jam.

Against me! and Bad religion. The Foundry - Las Vegas. Both bands were AMAZING. The only bad thing I will say was that SLS venue was way too "fancy", the bar was expensive, and to top it all off they announced a "no mashing rule" before the shows started, security was actually standing in the crowd watching people and physically removing them if they even tried to jump or mosh.

In the screenshot of Google Earth above, you can see the route that I rode my bicycle last Wednesday... the little bit of green coming in from the right is a downhill section of road, followed by the long red uphill section through the tiered rice paddies of the village, then up the mountain on an old road no longer open to traffic. I'd ridden 55km (34mi) to get to that point, and would end...
