Elizabeth Haynes 'Into the darkest corner' is my best ever Audible listen, so it's a huge shame that this, her third novel, is practically unlistenable, wholly due to Karen Cass' appalling narration. This is a novel of many voices and in this narration they are all read by Karen Cass.

Human Remains (Audiobook) by Elizabeth Haynes - audible.com

Haynes invites us to consider the fabric of contemporary society and how well it cares for its forlorn and elderly, not to mention what happens when boys lose their fathers and come adrift. Ultimately, [Human Remains] achieves a meditation on death. And therein lies both the compulsion and the fascination of crime fiction that dares to imagine ...
