Still others sign up to have daily Bible readings sent to them so they can read it a verse or two at a time.

How to Read the Bible — the Best Way for Beginners!

1. Read for the author's meaning, not your own. When we read, we want to know what an author intended us to see and experience in his writing. He had an intention when he wrote. Nothing will ever change that. It is there as a past, objective event in history. We are not reading simply for subjective experiences.
