Yes, I am over all that. I'm over listening to advertisements, the latest fashions (I never was much for that), events I should attend in order to be seen, red carpet madness. I'm getting more and more free from the expectations of the external world.

I'm Over All That: And Other Confessions by Shirley ...

Her boundless curiosity, her sense of humor, and her generally positive approach to her investigations has kept me coming back to each book she has written. Because I'm sure she's not "over" seeking and writing about it. Now that she's written I'm Over All That: And Other Confessions, I now can't wait to see what she'll do next. Five stars.
