This has such a heartfelt story line. The author, Debbie Levy, really has done an excellent job on creating Danielle's (main character) character relatable to the reader. The story is about Danielle's journey on dealing with a tragic accident. She feels she is responsible for it. The guilt is eating her alive.

Imperfect Spiral (2013) About book: What a gift that would be. No, my eyes are the last to get in on the action. My mouth wobbles and, basically, disintegrates. My face becomes red and contorted. The only thing to do is to hide it. So, am I saying that vanity is what made me run away from Justin when I cried in the park yesterday?
