Similarly, "slow" does not have to mean slow in the physical sense of that word. Slow means working at a pace that is comfortable for you. You can still work hard and fast at what you do, but you should also work at a pace that is optimal for you and you should devote only as many hours to it as you feel comfortable.

In Praise of Slow - I thoroughly enjoyed and found very helpful to remind me to "slow down" - and all the ways in which we hurry up ourselves and our children - how much we are missing by not slowing down. So, - my new rule of thumb, when I feel hurried, slow down and smell the roses and enjoy life more.
