A Meal In Winter Hubert

A MEAL IN WINTER by Hubert Mingarelli. This is a skillful, subtle French novel which will make uncomfortable reading for many people. It is a simple story of three soldiers on a mission in the bitterly cold countryside who stop at an abandoned cottage and cook a meal. All sounds nice enough.

A Meal In Winter by Hubert Mingarelli - Goodreads

Called 'masterly and necessary' by the Times Literary Supplement, A Meal in Winter recalls the claustrophobia of Roman Polanski's The Pianist and Louis Begley's Wartime Lies. A sleeper hit in the United Kingdom, this is the first novel by the award-winning French novelist Hubert Mingarelli to be translated into English.

review 1: A Meal in Winter is a beautiful book but extremely sad. Some stories, books, and films wrap up their narrative with a beautiful message of how good triumphs over evil and about how in great tragedy people find their common humanity and band together.
