How English Works A Grammar Practice Book - The Best

How English Works is based on the premise that students can't really work on improving their grammar while they are speaking. The nature of spoken communication simply does not leave room for extensive monitoring or for review of the language produced. While the book provides frequent opportunity for oral practice, many of its exercises are designed to focus on reading and writing, when students have time to analyze, recall, discuss, and apply principles of grammar.
