"In order to change the world, you have to get your head together first." -Jimmi Hendrix I often end up going on rants about how good things are. Because things are REALLY good. Like, insanely good. I also do a lot of talking about "changing the world" or whatever. It's worth noting (see the Hendrix quote above) that it's kind [...]

How good do we have it, really? - Steve Moraco

The way of salvation as made clear by the Bible is that we stop relying on our own good works to get us into heaven. We cannot stand before a righteous God and expect to be 'good enough' to get in. Also, according to the bible, all we have to do to get this salvation is to trust in Jesus Christ's redemptive work on the cross.

Articles How Good Do We Have To Be? With so many serious problems in the world, Jean Kazez asks whether there's any excuse to buy ourselves new toys, or even take up more worthy pastimes like playing the violin. Her reflections take in Paul Farmer, Peter Singer, Susan Wolf and Nietzsche.

How Good Do We Have To Be? | Issue 58 | Philosophy Now

After Adam we know about good and evil and we know that we are sinners and we will die. But Christ came to take away our sin—to show us that we can know about good and evil— and do what is good. In the next world, there will be no more dying, or sorrow, or pain. It's another step, and a beautiful one.
