A Gift Of Thought Tassamara

'Thought' gives us a new look at the strangeness of the sleepy Florida town of Tassamara by taking the characters out and plunking them down in Washington, D.C. And while we are surrounded by intrigues, weird psychic abilities, and ghosts, the story is rooted in something as deep and moving as a parent's love for their child.

Tassamara 02 A Gift of Thought - Sarah Wynde Chapter One The airport was already decorated for Christmas. If Dillon had still been alive, he would have said something wry and sarcastic about the materialism of contemporary American society, about Christmas as an excuse to sell stuff, about cheap glitter being no way to celebrate light into darkness.

He looked like a Floridian still, she thought. A little too tan, his leather jacket a little too lightweight for the wintery DC weather. But hot as hell. The easy charm of the privileged teenager had become much more compelling on the man who looked as if he rarely smiled. She hated the way he could make her feel, truly she did.
