10th Anniversary Womens Murder Club

I have enjoyed most of the previous novels of the Women's Murder Club series and I believe the 10th Anniversary was a good addition. Yes, James Patterson doesn't have the greatest prose. The man isn't John Steinbeck or Ernest Hemingway, but his books are entertaining.

10th Anniversary was just too over-the-top chick-lit romantic projectile vomit for me to really deal with. The mystery elements were quickly wrapped up half way through. I suspect this was because it is the 10th novel in the series, so most of it was more focused on the women and their private lives and how those have changed over the series ...
