Community Reviews. O'Brien's novel, In the Forest, is based on a true story that took place in County Clare, Ireland in 1994, during which a deranged local boy killed a young mother, her son and a local priest who had befriended him. Woodland straddling two counties and several townlands, a drowsy corpus of green,...

Review: In The Forest by Edna O'Brien | Books | The Guardian

O'Brien (Wild Decembers, 2001, etc.) offers a grimly fascinating portrait of a young Irish psychopath, delivered in a flat and unaffected prose reminiscent of a police dossier. This is not the story of a poor boy from the slums who never had a chance. Michen O'Kane grew up in the Irish countryside among respectable folk who were far from rich but wanted for very little.
