#16thingsithoughtweretrue Quotes by Janet Gurtler

Janet Gurtler writes relatable, imperfect characters and puts them in challenging, thought-provoking situations. This is especially apparent in #16thingsithoughtweretrue where each character is dealing with important issues.. I didn't quite LOVE any of the characters, but I grew fond of them.

Review: #16thingsithoughtweretrue by Janet Gurtler

Overall, this was a great intro to Janet Gurtler. This was my first book by her, and I really enjoyed her writing style and though I would have liked a bit more depth to some of her characters, I liked this book and Morgan's story.

No one deserves death. Good or bad. Murderer or not. Life is the most precious thing given to you, and everyone should live it thoroughly. If I ever die, I'd like to be remembered for all the right reasons. Janet Gurtler did an amazing job of putting the message out there. Words can't describe how it made me feel. Books are my mood changers ...

There is something about Janet Gurtler novels that just makes me binge read them. I stayed up late reading this one several nights in a row (even though I had to work early in the AM). I read #16ThingsIThoughtWereTrue a few months ago and I LOVED it. I apparently loved it so much that I went over to Kayla's house and said READ IT.
