A Beautiful Truth by Colin McAdam - my experience

A Beautiful Truth is an epic and heartfelt story about parenthood, friendship, loneliness, fear and conflict, about the things we hold sacred as humans and how much we have in common with our animal relatives. A novel of great heart and wisdom from a literary master, it exposes the yearnings, cruelty, and resilience of all great apes.

Summary and reviews of A Beautiful Truth by Colin McAdam

Throughout "A Beautiful Truth," Canadian novelist Colin McAdam writes about apes with remarkable sensitivity and intuition. One night, Looee slips away into the woods next door: He "came to the outer edge of the woods with the mind of a four-year-old boy, the coordination and strength of an eighteen-year-old, a throat,...

Review: 'A Beautiful Truth,' by Colin McAdam - The Washington Post - Washington Post: Breaking News, World, US, DC News & Analysis - The Washington Post

A Beautiful Truth by Colin McAdam: Review. The beautiful truth, however, is empathy, that imaginative sense of connection that binds us to spouses, children, strangers, larger social groups, and other apes. Without its saving grace we are only sad, helpless, isolated individuals trapped in fragile bodies.
