Acedia Seven Deadly Sins 4

The seven deadly sins, also known as the capital vices or cardinal sins, is a grouping and classification of vices within Christian teachings. Behaviours or habits are classified under this category if they directly give birth to other immoralities. According to the standard list, they are pride, greed, lust, envy, gluttony, wrath and sloth, which are also contrary to the seven virtues.

Acedia is perhaps the most misunderstood sin of the Seven Deadly Sins.. Also known as sloth, most people associate acedia with laziness. But as Fr. Mike Schmitz explains in the great video below, acedia is actually something much more specific - and dangerous.

What Everyone Gets Wrong About the Sin of Acedia, the ...

Gregory saw unjustified boasting as a form of pride, so he included it with pride in his list of sins. Lastly, he added Invidia (envy). After his revisions, the Catholic Church was left with seven deadly sins, which we still recognize today. Gregory's list considers sins as less or more deadly depending on how they offend against love.
