Q: If God appears in front of you now and says, "I will take your life now unless you can give me a convincing reason that you shouldn't die." How would you answer? I can't answer that, as the relevant answer would depend on which god it was, and you forgot to specify in your question... humans have believed in a great many of them over the ...

Living in front of God Unlike many of my Catholic friends, I enjoy a fair amount of contemporary Christian music. My enjoyment of such music, by no means all of it, as much of is lamentably bad, has no liturgical implications, which means I have no desire for it to comprise any part of the Sacred Liturgy.

There's this guy who keeps preaching in front of the city hall, claiming He's God. He says he's the fulfillment of prophecies from the New Testament. He's got this group of 8 or 10 guys following him around, agreeing with him. He says if we don't believe in him, he'll shake the dust off his gymshoes, which means we're in deep trouble.

The story of Jehoshaphat and the choir that led an army is one shining example. Jehoshaphat, a king who sought God. Jehoshaphat was a good king we read about in 2 Chronicles 17-20. He was the son of Asa, another good king of Judah, and he "sought the God of his father, and walked in His commandments" (2 Chronicles 17:4).
