All I Love And Know

"All I Love and Know" (Morrow, 2014) by Judith Frank. SO not a romance, but entirely about a gay couple who love each other. I want to say "harrowing," but it's not really--any more than everyday life can be harrowing and disorienting. It is one of the most beautifully written books I've read in a while. This book knocked me down.

Judith Frank's ALL I LOVE AND KNOW, is a riveting account of love and loss, diversity, adoption, and finding your way back from tragedy to something beautiful. Matthew and Daniel, a gay couple residing in Northampton, MA (before gay marriage is legal), where they are in a comfortable relationship, until their world is turned upside down.

All I Love and Know by Judith Frank - Goodreads

All I Love and Know, Judith Frank's latest novel, combines the experience of being gay and Jewish with grief, and the political Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Some of the best parts of the book are Frank's depictions of how a gay Jewish couple copes with becoming guardians to children whose parents have died in a terrorist attack.
