Explanation of the novel's title. The title of Ali Smith's novel Hotel World acts as a metaphor for life's passage of time and the moments which escape us all too quickly. A hotel everyday, every hour, every moment is checking in a new guest or "life" just as quickly as one is checking out.

Hotel World - Wikipedia

Hotel World by Ali Smith. There is a fair amount of experimentation in Hotel World, as Smith uses a number of styles and approaches. Not everything is successful -- and there are sections that can be quite tiresome -- but parts are exceptional (the first and last sections, in particular). Parts of the tale, like some of the consciousnesses,...
