Inda by Sherwood Smith, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Sherwood Smith's Crown and Court duet will always be among my favourite books, but I have to admit that, while I love it less, Inda is a far stronger work. Smith has been writing stories set in this world since her childhood, and this shows in the level of detail and the carefully thought-out society which she portrays.

The prose takes a while to get used to, but once you get into the book it flows beautifully. I really enjoyed Smith's narration throughout the book. The characters are diverse, well developed, and I especially enjoyed the depiction of different sexualities. Plus: realistic women! The first book, Inda, is basically a coming of age story.
