Pemberley is the fictional country estate owned by Fitzwilliam Darcy, the male protagonist in Jane Austen's novel Pride and Prejudice. It is located near the fictional town of Lambton, and believed by some to be based on Chatsworth House, near Bakewell in Derbyshire.. In describing the estate, Austen uses uncharacteristically explicit symbolism to represent the geographical home of the man at ...

Updated 6-26-18. When notarizing documents to be sent to foreign countries, you may be asked if you can provide something called an "apostille" for the document. An apostille is a certificate — often attached to the document by an appropriate government official after it is notarized. While you are not responsible for obtaining an apostille, signers often ask about them, so it's helpful to ...
