Many Christians have a limited understanding of the Bible. They may know bits and pieces - random Bible stories and verses - but not how the pieces fit together. This study fits these 'bits and pieces' of Bible knowledge together into the big picture, showing how each one relates to a common theme that runs throughout the Word. This journey 'through the Bible' reveals the unfolding of God's ...

The book of Lamentations is sandwiched between the books of Ezekiel and Jeremiah. This unusual book properly follows the book of Jeremiah the prophet and priest because it was written by him. It is the "Lamentations of Jeremiah" as he wept over the city of Jerusalem following its desolation and captivity by Nebuchadnezzar. In the Septuagint...

The third Gospel presents Jesus as the Son of man. That was our Lord's favorite title for himself, one he used more frequently than any other name. As you read the Gospel of Luke, the one you meet here is, of course, the same person you read about in Matthew and Mark. However, in Matthew the emphasis is upon his kingliness. Matthew is the Gospel of the...

Well, in continuing the Wednesday "Seek the things above" series, I've had a section of free Bible verse printables up near the top of my page for a while now, but I realized I've never really mentioned it here in my posts! I just updated it today, changing some things around, and adding some new verses, and I wanted to explain that section - and share them with you in case you haven't ...

Verse by Verse Studies. These notes have been compiled while leading various Bible studies over the past 30 years. The approach is generally expositional, with emphasis on sound doctrine, original language studies (see in depth Greek Word Studies), and application. Frequent use is made of well done illustrations, especially from Our Daily Bread: A Daily Devotional.

A merry heart has a continual feast. If I were to tell you I had a letter from a man in prison, who had not committed the crime he was imprisoned for, who had been mistreated and abused, who had no wife or children to comfort him, who just found out that people he should have been able to count on were slandering him, and that he might soon be executed – how do you think that letter would sound?
