All the Flowers in Shanghai Paperback - amazon.com

All the Flowers in Shanghai is the first novel by Duncan Jepson. I think he wrote a remarkable novel his first time out. Jepson's characters were real and engaging. The main character, Feng, displays the whole range of emotions which I would imagine any young woman who was thrown into an arranged marriage would show.

All the Flowers in Shanghai was a thoughtful book that displays the impact of one's environment. Feng's character is a complex yet naive woman, who eventually breaks through her imposed shell. I appreciated reading this book, and look forward to more from this author.
