A Boy of Good Breeding by Miriam Toews - Goodreads

A Boy of Good Breeding is a lovely, light look at family and unfulfilled dreams. Setting is key to this story, and the eccentric characters are funny and entertaining. Hosea's a little over the top, but I found myself sympathizing with his odd quest.

A Boy of Good Breeding: A Novel Paperback - amazon.com

A Boy of Good Breeding does have its moments. The book's tone owes something to Garrison Keillor's ruminations on Wobegon, Minnesota, or Stuart McLean's stories of The Vinyl Cafe : short sentences, colourful characters, and a lot of charm in the timing of the telling.
