If you've ever wondered whether modern art is trash disguised by critical theory or whether critical theory is trashy modern art, Will Chancellor's debut novel, A Brave Man Seven Storeys Tall, may settle the wager. It is a spirited sendup of the frauds found in art, academia and their "liminal" intersections.

A Brave Man Seven Storeys Tall by Will Chancellor - Review ...

A Brave Man Seven Storeys Tall is an altogether rarer beast: a slim and elegant American novel of ideas. Between the poles of these two aesthetics, one could comfortably drive almost every novel published in the past year.
