I liked this take on aliens, because people here, know about aliens. In Gravity, things were tense, everyone was on edge, and then, hell broke loose. In Hover, the setting is the alien planet of Lodge, where Ari finds herself when she wakes up. Jackson is with her, but here's where she discovers who is Jackson truly, which is definitely not ...

Hover (The Taking Book 2) ... If I could give Melissa West a good piece of advice it would be: please ask yourself "why" and "what if" to round out the holes in the plots. Also, never be afraid to let your imagination explode onto paper when describing your creations. Hover is a good sequel, and I look forward to reading the final story.

The Taking Series by Melissa West - Goodreads

Fortunately, Melissa West does not lose my desire to continue on with the series. Whew! Hover is full of action packed scenes that really kept me wanting to read. It unfortunately also had me rolling my eyes in a few places. It is these eye rolling moments that make me want to give the book two stars.
