I Am The Wallpaper Mark

"Mark Peter Hughes hits it dead on with I am the Wallpaper, the story of Floey Packer who finds her life (in the form of her diary and embarrassing pictures) posted on the Internet for all to see...Floey (is) a darling character who will keep readers laughing." – Kimberly Pauley, YA Books Central.com

I Am The Wallpaper - Mark Peter Hughes

Um, yeah. Enter I Am the Wallpaper. Floey Packer is an introvert surrounded by screaming, bratty, intrusive cousins--and a cadre of adolescent boys determined to invade what little privacy she has left. (Naturally, her mother simp Mark Peter Hughes is, I'm convinced, secretly a teenage girl.

I Am the Wallpaper by Mark Peter Hughes - Goodreads

I Am The Wallpaper by Mark Peter Hughes (Delacorte Press, 2005). Floey's nothing but "the wallpaper" compared to her sister Lilian who "always had to be the bride at every wedding and the corpse at every funeral." But all that's over now, at least if Floey herself has anything to say about it. New Floey, future Floey is on the rise, no matter the resulting friendship fallouts ...
