I was a "What if" girl when I was young--well, I guess the "What if" never leaves oneself, but I am less of a "What if" person today than I was as a girl. The book's title, All the Answers, starts off as the pencil having all the answers, but then the title, "All the Answers" becomes more deeper than that.

Is anyone else in here tired of all these "textbook answers"? I mean if I want a book answer I'll go read books. What I want is personal experiences not 1/2 page of what the book says? If you want to refer to a book you can put down the book and author and then I can look it up if that's what I want. It's disgusting to me.
