I have had a funny relationship with Jayne Ann Krentz's books over the years. I either love them, or hate them. All Night Long falls under the love them category. It was an excellent read. The plot was very strong. My attention was grabbed on the very first page and kept until the very last chapter. The twists and turns were unpredictable.

All Night Long I thoroughly enjoyed this novel and its narration! It takes a special talent for a narrator to be able to differentiate characters in an audio book - especially when there are several male and female characters! Kudos to Amanda Cobb for having made each character in this novel distinct and believable!
