18 Things Jamie Ayres

18 things is the 5th or 6th book I've read from Curiosity Quills, and I have loved every one! As with all the books before it from this publisher, 18 Things is unique and original. Olga experiences her first broken heart, in the form of her best friend dying, and her being unable to save him.

18 Things (My So Called Afterlife, #1) by Jamie Ayres

I finished "18 Things" by Jamie Ayres a while ago, and decided to let it sit a simmer before I wrote a review. I considered not writing a review at all, because I'm not sure how to give this book, and the brilliant author, the justice she deserves.

As preparation for this post, I read the Ayres' Christmas letter I sent in 2011. A LOT can change in 5 years. I wrote about how I'd just finished my novel and planned to send it out in February. By June, I would have my first contract for 18 Things. Then came 18 Truths and 18 Thoughts. This year I didn't write much or publish anything new.

review 1: The concept of this book was great, but the execution fell flat. The dialogue was corny, the characters cliché and the writing juvenile. There were times I literally laughed out loud at moments that were supposed to be serious b/c it was just so ridiculous.
