1848: Year of Revolution by Mike Rapport - Goodreads

The Prague (Berlin, Paris, Milan) Spring. In "1848: Year of Revolution," a lively, panoramic new history, Mike Rapport describes the uprisings of that year while making clear their modern resonance. The revolutionaries, he argues, were overmatched by near-impossible challenges that sound remarkably familiar today.

Book Review | '1848: Year of Revolution,' by Mike Rapport ...

Witnessing the birth of a united Germany and Italy out of the ashes of revolution marks 1848 as no less important as 1776 or 1789. A much needed text which grapples an interesting and at times, confusing year in the history of not only Europe, but the world.

Mike Rapport examines what happened in the revolutions on the other side of the Atlantic in "1848: Year of Revolution". He examines some of the factors that led to the unrest, including nationalism, economic dislocation, and demands on the part of the people for reforms such as free speech, regular parliaments, religious freedom, and trial by jury.

1848: Year of Revolution by Mike Rapport (9780465020676)

Although the book was only marginally helpful for my family history needs, it gave a fascinating picture of the growth of liberal political movements, professional revolutionaries, and national sentiment in the 19th century and the impact of the failure of the revolutions of 1848 on the shape of modern Europe. A well-written history! less
