In the Presence of My Enemies, has had a huge impact on I decided to read this book because I heard a lot about their experience from my parents, peers, and other adults. My favorite part of this book was when Mrs. Gracia Burnham was rescued and reunited with her family.

In the Presence of My Enemies by Gracia Burnham

I liked this book. True stories are great and this one was recent. Being christian, I could relate to the spiritual struggles this couple went through. It has some valuable advice about how to handle trials. The author is spunky and bold and reminded me of my own mother and how she might feel and behave in a similar situation.
